

and in their certificates believe the whole series and contents of the said paper writing beginning ending and subscribed as aforesaid to be all of the proper hand writing and subscription of the said deceased H. Balchen John Balchen same day the said Henry Balchen and affidavit before me Geo: Francis Esq: Just: Tho: Adderley 17th Dec.

This Will was proved at London on the nineteenth day of November one thousand seven hundred and seventy one before the worshipful George Francis Doctor of Laws Extraordinary of the High Court of Chancery Doctor of Laws Master of the High Court of Chancery or Commissary of the prerogative Court of Canterbury lawfully constituted by the death of William Capp one of the Executors named in the said will to whom administration was granted of all and singular the goods Chattels and credits of the said deceased having been first sworn only to administer power reserved of making the like grant to Elizabeth Cumberland widow the object of the said deceased and the other Executor named in the said will when she shall apply for the same &c.

In the Name of God Amen Daniel

Daniel's choice of the parish of Saint Ann Westminster in the County of Middlesex do make this my last will and Testament in manner following first to say first I desire that all my just debts may be fully paid and satisfied as soon as conveniently may be after my decease and after payment thereof I give and bequeath unto my son Samuel Choise the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds three per cent upon said annuities now standing in my name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to be transferred to him when he shall have attained his age of twenty five years also I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth Choise the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds three per cent upon said annuities also now standing in my name in the said books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to be transferred to her when she shall attain her age of twenty one years and I hereby give and bequeath unto my dear wife Mary Choise the Dividends and interest of the said two several sums of three hundred and fifty pounds and three hundred and fifty pounds three per cent upon said annuities until my said two children shall have respectively attained their respective ages of twenty one years she maintaining and Entating them in the mean time and after my said son shall have attained

Daniel
Choise